2020 has seen the world transformed dramatically, from the epidemic of the Coronavirus (COVID-19) to the economy turmoil. San Jose wanted to establish a new image in the new century. It is neither a sculpture/artwork nor a new building/lighthouse, but symbolizes a new generation of the city. So the spirit of this Landmark is “Reloading Land” —— returning to the nature and given a second thought on humanity.