Onsite Professional Services

If your investor day features an in-person element, consider the addition of an onsite AV team. For an incremental fee, we'll provide an experienced team to help you execute the technical and broadcast logistics for your event.

Conference Calls

If your event requires a conference call, we can help you deliver a fully integrated event for your speakers and attendees. Our solution provides simple registration, a reliable call experience, and the high level of security you have come to expect from Notified. PRE-EVENT

Your dedicated project manager will build your event microsite with the content you provide, customizing it to your brand.

EVENT DAY

Our team will work closely with you to deliver your live webcast, manage logistics, and update your microsite.

POST-EVENT

Your microsite will be automatically updated with the archived webcast. Our detailed analytics let you analyze and evaluate event attendance.
