Customer Success Story

KiZAN is a trusted advisor providing flexible and responsive support.

Client Name: Kirby Risk

Kirby Risk Corporation is a multi-faceted company dedicated to understanding and meeting the needs of their business partners with innovative, effective solutions. Kirby Risk helps customers meet productivity objectives by providing a wide range of products and services, including quality electrical supplies, wiring harness/cable manufacturing, and quality industrial component manufacturing.

Kirby Risk trusts KiZAN to provide services and support not only because of our deep knowledge of the Microsoft ecosystem, but also because of our attention to quality and detail. KiZAN consistently strives to exceed Kirby's expectations and invests the time and resources necessary to understand their unique needs. Because we put the true needs of the customer first, we only communicate flexible solutions that work within Kirby's parameters and budget.

"KiZAN actually is a trusted advisor. Even though we are a medium-sized company spread across a wide geographic area, we can count on KiZAN to provide exceptional and responsive customer service."
