

A Wonderful Job Description

Role - Designer

Level - Junior/Midweight

Agency Overview:

Wonderful is an agency that leads digital transformation in user and customer experiences. Our team of UX designers, strategists, developers, creatives and digital marketers take complex digital problems and deliver Wonderfully simple solutions for some of the worlds biggest brands. With clients including KLM Airlines, GE Healthcare, RS Components, Mind, HSBC, Diageo and Dreamland there's plenty of exciting projects to work with.

Wonderful has a culture full of energy and aspiration. With collaboration as a core value, we have built a team that blends skill sets, viewpoints and expertise to deliver the highest standard of work, work that balances creativity and technology through a clear agile, UX framework. We've worked hard to make sure that those working at Wonderful are part of a team doing meaningful work; we even work from our own coworking space, WonderHub, a place built to inspire innovation and collaboration.

As we expand the team we are hiring a junior/mid weight designer to deliver exciting design work for our clients on a range of primarily digital projects.

Are you a Wonderful person?

Who We're Looking For

We are looking for an excellent designer that can understand and bring a client brief to life, with clear thinking as well as excellent, creative execution. The work we do is primarily designing and creating digital, platforms, products and experiences but can equally include branding or campaign creative. You will be able to demonstrate your ability to create outstanding creative responses to client briefs and explain your thinking to meet their objectives.

You will be comfortable working as part of a multi disciplined team, collaborating with different stakeholders to deliver the final outcome. This will mean the ability to communicate your thinking is important both internally and externally, with a positive attitude towards the process that is always looking to learn and improve and deliver the best possible work.

Practically this will mean you will need to have proven agency or relevant experience, for at least 2 years and a portfolio of projects that demonstrate your ability to deliver exciting design work for live clients.

This role will best suit a designer that is looking to push themselves further and to have a greater influence on the final outcomes of a project. You will be working within a team reporting to the Creative Director. You will be working with exciting brands, in a growing agency, that is actively involved in the industry, with a rapidly rising profile.

Requirements

- Agency experience as a digital designer
- Portfolio of excellent quality design projects
- Clear design thinker and excellent executer
- Up-to-date knowledge of design process, trends and best practice
- In depth experience with design tools such as Adobe XD, Adobe Illustrator and Photoshop
- Collaborative; strong communication skills to work with internal and external stakeholders
- Wonderful people - positive, growth minded and excellent at what you do
- Good time-management skills - we deliver on time
- Degree level design qualification

What's On Offer

- Salary dependant on skills and experience, right salary for the right person
- Normal working hours and the ability to work remotely at times
- An exciting workplace in our own coworking space, the WonderHub
- A welcoming and supportive work environment surrounded by a diverse team of talented people
- 20 days annual leave as standard (plus bank holidays and shut down at Christmas)
- Pension contributions

What Our Team Say About Working At Wonderful

https://youtu.be/mOopRt_fuTc

To Apply

To apply for this role send your CV and portfolio to recruitment@bewonderful.co.uk