

NUTRIBUTLER BY RMS

SERVING YOUR PATIENTS BETTER
HEALTH ON A SILVER PLATTER

Improved Patient Outcomes. Higher Profits. Happier Customers.

Nearly 50% of all adults take at least one prescription medication. These medications often lead to the depletion of critical nutrients. This prescription induced nutrient depletion can result in side effects which in turn can lead to patients who don't comply with prescription regimens.

With integrated recommendations powered by leading healthcare databases and supplement suppliers, you can make therapy recommendations tailored to offset the side effects caused by prescription induced nutrient depletion.

NutriButler by RMS enhances patient care, improves outcomes, and delivers happier, healthier customers through nutrient depletion counselling.

BUILT-IN TO EVERY RMS SYSTEM

Every RMS system comes standard with NutriButler functionality. Simply choose your nutrient depletion partner, register with their database, and start making supplement recommendations today!

OUR PARTNERS

SCAN

Scan prescriptions at the point-of-service. Based on the NDC number, the system will identify recommended therapies to combat nutrient depletion-induced side effects.

REVIEW

Information on the potential side effects and the recommended therapies are displayed at the register. Help your patients find the right supplement today, or print the recommendation on their receipt for future reference.

EDUCATE

Share your knowledge on prescription-induced nutrient depletion with your customers to keep them happy, healthy, and coming back for more!

INCREASE SALES

Most pharmacies already carry supplements. NutriButler allows you to make targeted supplement recommendations that will not only improve a customer's experience with their medication, but increase your supplement sales and overall pharmacy revenue. It's a win-win for everyone!
