The six online workshops at the 2022 aNewSpring Awards

As an online visitor of the hybrid aNewSpring Awards, you can choose two workshops during the two parallel workshop rounds. All workshops are in English and are 20 minutes long. Recordings will be made available after the event.

Insight cafe! Share your insights and ideas for content creation

We always appreciate feedback and insights about our platform, so please join our brainstorm about possible improvements for creating content within the aNewSpring platform! During this session we will use Miro, an online whiteboarding tool. Additionally, get yourself inspired on how you can efficiently set up an online brainstorm session!

A quick class to create great look and feels

During this workshop you learn the ins and outs of defining styles for your look and feels. By using a moodboard, we will show you how practical it can be to define and create a look and feel for your learning environment. Let's get started!

How to develop great questions

Let me help you to create better questions in aNewSpring. Challenge your learners, engage them and check if they really understand your content.

Improving your learner experience with Profiles & Competencies

In this workshop Customer Success Manager Roy de Vries will tell you all about our newest feature. Next to a live demonstration we will explore how you can implement Profiles & Competencies in your own learning environment!

Creating impactful content can be quite easy!

Struggling to create great content and aiming for perfection? Join this workshop to get more by doing less! Spoiler alert: Richard Mayer will help us.

All aNewSpring platform questions answered within a minute. Guaranteed.

Are you struggling with a platform question? Or are you interested in questions from others? In this session our support hero Tony will answer all platform questions within 1 minute. Lets see what happens if the 1 minute mark is surpassed...
