CPM WDC Webinar Recap

February 18th, 2021

The College of Performance Management (CPM) Washington, DC (WDC) Chapter recently held their monthly virtual event where Pinnacle hosted a panel discussion focused on how the global pandemic has affected managing projects.

Three experienced project management experts, Matthew Raposo, Basil Soutos, and Tej Sujlana, were on the panel sharing what they have seen over the last year and what the future looks like.

You can read a recap of that panel discussion here. Stay up to date on all of our upcoming events by clicking here.

Software Spotlight

Did you know that an Enterprise Project Management (EPM) solution based on the Microsoft Project Server platform can solve a variety of business challenges?

Microsoft Project Server and Project Online are leading toolsets in the Enterprise Project Management (EPM) and Project Portfolio Management (PPM) market, and have become tried-and-true standards across a plethora of industries. The Microsoft EPM suite is a collaborative project and portfolio environment anchored on SharePoint, Project Server and Microsoft Project. In Microsoft's cloud environment, it is called Project Online and contains the same functionality and tools as the on-premise version. Project Server and Project Online help organizations effectively manage resources, collaborate and coordinate across projects, and measure and track portfolio performance.

Microsoft Project is the de facto standard project scheduling tool, world-wide, making Microsoft Project Server and Project Online natural choices for enterprise project management. Pinnacle has been a certified Microsoft Project & Portfolio Management partner for more than 20 years and we can assist your organization in maturing your EPM.
