the vibrancy
of downtown.

Community

The southern hot spot

Affectionately known as the “Soda City” by locals, Columbia was founded in 1786 and is home to over 800,000 people. The vibrancy of the community is built upon a unique mix of government, business, higher education, nature, arts and entertainment. All converging in downtown and making Columbia a hot spot.

Culture

Small town with big talent

Immerse yourself in the lively arts district on Main Street. 1441 Main is within walking distance to performing arts theaters, museums, public art displays, historic movie theaters and musical auditoriums. Additionally, just steps outside the building you can participate in Soda City Market on Saturdays, First Thursday in the summer and many more events throughout the year to include festivals, live music and parades.

Business

Give your business a home

The Main Street District is driven by government, healthcare, banking, information technology, legal services and insurance clusters. 1441 Main’s unique location puts you in the heart of Columbia giving you direct access to the biggest decision makers in South Carolina.

Find the right space for your business.

See yourself in the space.

1441 Main offers a variety of suites available - ranging from small suites to multi-floor space. From blank canvases for you to turn into your own or existing ready to move-in space.

We welcome the opportunity to walk you through our availabilities and find your business a home at 1441 Main.
