

What you need to know about IRS SECTION 179

What is Section 179?

Section 179 encourages business owners to invest in equipment or technology by allowing them to deduct a substantial amount of the asset's value the first year.

If you put your leased equipment in use before December 31, 2021, you may be able to deduct up to $1,050,000 from your taxes.

Additional amounts may be expensed as per applicable depreciation.

› Does Section 179 apply to my business?

A sole proprietor, partnership, or corporation can fully expense qualified tangible property the year it is put in use if the qualifying assets are used for business purposes more than 50 percent of the time. Your equipment must be delivered and in use by December 31, 2021.

› How much can I deduct for the 2021 tax year?

Your business can deduct a value up to $1,050,000 of qualified equipment acquired and put in use during 2021. A bonus depreciation of 100% may apply for the $2,620,000 spending cap.

› Why should I utilize Section 179?

Section 179 may lower your tax payment to the government and free up cash for other business needs.

› Can I finance equipment and still take the deduction?

Yes, Capital Leases and Equipment Finance Agreements may qualify for the Section 179 deduction. You can make minimal payments in 2021 for your new equipment and may still be able to write off up to $1,050,000 of the purchase price.
