After dinner they go to watch an NBA game. At halftime, they start to eat cookies. Mac Miller says: "These are so good!" He eats the entire tub. At the end of the game, Mac Miller says that Henry and his cool wii bowling skills have inspired a new song idea. That night, Henry can't fall asleep. He is surprised because he never thought that Mac Miller would introduce him in the concert. Mac Miller asks Henry to share his thoughts.

“This year means a lot to me and it’s been one of the best years of my life. I graduated from Waring School, I kept playing my favorite game, I met my favorite rapper face to face and I was a part of his concert. I must be dreaming. Thank you so much Mac Miller!”

Before the song starts, Henry feels his weak ankle hurt, and he opens his eyes. “Ah, it's just a dream.”
