Ready to Sell

Step 1: Brokers who want to sell ACA marketplace individual and family plans must be licensed and appointed. Brokers must be both licensed and appointed as applicable in the state of sale. (Note: Your appointment must be active where required by state law or "on hold for sale.")

If you are already appointed to sell Aetna's commercial products proceed to step 2. If not, get appointed to sell commercial products.

Step 2: Brokers who wish to sell ACA marketplace products must hold Federally-Facilitated Marketplace (FFM) certification or state certification in Nevada, if applicable.

- Get FFM certified or learn more about 2022 FFM registration and training.
- Get state certified for Nevada, if applicable.

Step 3: Brokers selling ACA marketplace individual and family plans must assign commission payments to themselves or to an agency. And select a general agent, if applicable.

- Assign your commissions
- Select a general agent, if applicable.
