

Physical Damage Coverage

Physical Damage insurance through Great West Casualty Company offers protection for over-the-road equipment. Various deductibles, self-insured retentions, location-specific catastrophe coverage, and other options offer flexibility for a motor carrier's needs.

OPTIONS

Optional coverage can be provided for permanently installed electronic equipment such as computers, cell phones, and other communication equipment.

Rental reimbursement, deductible reimbursement for owner-operators, and coverage for shipping containers are also available.

Coverage is automatically provided for:

- Payments for certain fluids in a covered loss.
- Coverage for towing expenses resulting from a covered loss.
- Downtime coverage payments for a covered loss: $450 per week for up to eight weeks after the waiting period.

GETTING YOU BACK ON THE ROAD FASTER

Long-term relationships with established repair facilities, towing companies, and parts suppliers throughout the United States add value to Great West's Physical Damage coverage. Equipment will receive the attention it deserves no matter where it is repaired. Great West is also willing to accommodate special situations in which a motor carrier's own maintenance staff is qualified to make repairs.
