Combined Arms is a dynamic, ever-evolving collaborative impact organization using an innovative approach to technology and service delivery to disrupt the veteran transition experience. By providing comprehensive support to military members and their families as they transition to civilian life, we accelerate veteran transition to deliver maximum impact in the community.

Combined Arms streamlines the connection between veterans and their families from all military branches with organizations that serve them. We've created a new veteran service model, focusing on collective impact-reinventing what it means to serve veterans by creating pathways to access resources based on precisely what they've asked for, leaving the outdated model of "services in silos" behind.

The Combined Arms Board of Directors has unanimously nominated and voted on an Executive Committee to act as a governing body for the board in special circumstances. The Executive Committee is composed of the Chairman, Vice Chairman, Treasurer, Secretary, and At-Large member and can make decisions on behalf of the board. Our Executive Committee typically only convenes on special circumstances where a quorum of the board would be difficult to obtain.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b - Form 990 Review Process

The Form 990 is presented in its entirety to the board of directors and officers for review and approval prior to filing the Form 990.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts

Each director and officer of the organization, and each member of a committee with Board delegated powers, completes a questionnaire using the form approved by the Board, and signs a statement which affirms that such person is in compliance with the conflict of interest policy. If a conflict does exist between an individual and a matter being decided by a board or committee, the conflicted individual is recused from discussion and decision-making. Periodic reviews are conducted to ensure that the organization operates in a manner consistent with its charitable purposes and that it does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its status as a tax exempt organization.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a - Compensation Review & Approval Process - CEO & Top Management

A compensation committee, composed of individuals who were independent from the CEO, determine the CEO's compensation based on community market surveys for comparable positions. Combined Arms' budget and compensation strategy are considered before making a compensation determination.
