“Informative, relevant with adequate level of challenge. The extra learning enabled me to tailor my own learning and expand on the course content.”

“I could see the difference between the supervisors and managers who completed the course to the ones that didn't. Especially in leadership styles and developing and motivating others.”

“It has helped me come on leaps and bounds within my role and shown me subjects within management that without this course I wouldn't of known.”

“The course has really impacted on how I work with team members. How and why communication within the team and as an individual is so important.”
