Volunteer Online!

Complete your hours while physical distancing

This presentation was created by youth volunteers from the Volunteer Action Centre
What and How?

Virtual volunteering is volunteering done online and off-site from the non-profit organization being supported.

The Volunteer Action Centre of Waterloo Region has a volunteer matching platform where individuals can find and apply to virtual volunteer opportunities online!
Join in!

Subscribe to their weekly newsletter for updates and new opportunities:
https://share.hsforms.com/1RmIs0TSfTF6ZC8N6Zv82fQ31dos

Volunteer with the Kitchener Public Library:
https://www.kpl.org/volunteer/opportunities

Search for opportunities based on your interests:

Support our local Anishnabeg Outreach Centre by donating:
https://aocan.org/spirit-bundle-donate.html
Why?

- Build your social network for your future
- Add to your resume
- Form new friendships
- Build up your confidence and gain new skills
- The feeling of giving back and making a difference

“I’ve met so many great people around our community, tried new things, and gained some much needed confidence in myself”

“Virtual volunteering has been a new experience for me, and I enjoy this neat way of getting involved in the community and learning many new things”
A Message from the Volunteer Action Centre:

It is hard for organizations that normally have youth volunteers to create positions right now that ensure your safety during this pandemic. One way some organizations are trying to do this is by creating online programs or 'virtual volunteer opportunities' for youth to stay involved.

- Check out some of the virtual positions available on our website:

This Summer keep up to date on volunteer and community involvement opportunities from the Volunteer Action Centre Waterloo Region by:

- Checking out the Volunteer Action Centre website
- Subscribing to our newsletter
- Following us on Instagram @youthvolunteerwr

Questions? Contact the Volunteer Action Centre Waterloo Region:

☎: 519-742-8610  ✉: kate@volunteerwr.ca