

THE INDUSTRY'S BEST PARTNER EXPERIENCE

WHY PARTNER WITH EDIFY

CCaaS + UCaaS + CPaaS

Sell the most revolutionary platform in the industry + earn seriously competitive commissions. Partners enjoy support from senior sales executives, training courses, resources, and more.

THE PEOPLE

We're customers, too.

Edify is co-founded by industry experts Cameron Weeks and Bracken Fields. Their mission to finally fix CC + UC led them to build Edify from the ground up. We believe customer service experiences should be easy and enjoyable for not only the customer, but the agent too.

THE PROCESS

Let's build business together.

As a partner, you'll gain access to our resources, sales demos, and training. You can be as involved as you'd like in the sales process or simply provide the introduction and let the Edify sales team do the rest. Either way, we'll help build your business.

THE TECHNOLOGY

Don't put customers on anything else.

Edify Huddle CX is an omnichannel CC + UC + API solution designed for companies of all sizes. Innately built in the cloud to deliver every interaction channel in a single pane of glass, with a 100% full-stack SLA.

"Edify's competitive advantage derives from its natively built technology." - Mila D'Antonio, Ovum

"Cameron calls it Business Communications as a Service, or BCaaS. We call it digital transformation & the future of work. There is no reason it can't be all three at once... We find Edify's contact center solution to be a game-changer."

- Rich Tehrani, TMC Net

"The focus on the customer and the customer experience sets Edify apart from the rest..." - Tim Albright, Futurum

"Edify is a smart and secure investment for any company looking to deliver a best-in-class CX. And today, that's the only option." - CloudWedge
