

WE ARE CALLED

REGIS COLLEGE HERITAGE WEEK | MARCH 15-19, 2021

All events held via zoom. For all zoom links and events visit:
regiscollege.edu/heritageweek

MONDAY, MARCH 15

12-1 p.m.

Lunch and Learn: “How to be an Anti-Racist”

In his book, How to Be an Anti-Racist, Ibram X. Kendi upped the ante in discussions of race, power, and class. We’ll explore some of these themes during our session. With Professor Bernard Jackson and AVP and Chief Diversity Officer Audrey Grace.

6-7 p.m.

Update on Institutional Action Goals Town Hall

Join us for a community conversation on the official release of the six-month progress report on our Institutional Action Plan to Address Systemic Racism: what we have accomplished over the past six-months; what we’ve learned in the process; and, where our focus will be over the next few months. Discussion will be facilitated by AVP and Chief Diversity Officer Audrey Grace.

TUESDAY, MARCH 16

6-7:30 p.m.

PRIDE Faculty Lecture Series: “Don’t Blame The Virus, It Was Always Us: COVID as a Social Disease”

Professor Manuel Cifuentes discusses what we’ve learned from this pandemic to avoid disparities and injustices in the future.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 17

4-5 p.m.

White Privilege and Racism: “White, Woke, Privileged Folk Called to Step it Up! Panel Discussion

How effective are we as a community effective in combating racism and making a positive difference in the lives of people of color? Join us for a panel discussion with a community conversation on white privilege, awareness, responsibility and a new call to action-stepping it up for love and justice. Moderated by Dean Kate Edney, with panelists Professors Joe Draper, Jennifer Potts, Becky DesRoches, and Kevin Henze.

FRIDAY, MARCH 19

1-2:30 p.m.

Catholic Sisters Week Celebration and St. Joseph’s Day

Join Regis College faculty, staff and students for a virtual celebration of Catholic Sisters Week and St. Joseph’s Day. The event will include a prayer service led by students in the Common Good course and interviews with Sisters Mary Ann Enright, CSJ, Charlene Favreau, CSJ and Marilyn McGoldrick, CSJ on “Why we are Called” also led by students in the Common Good course.