

Congress Extends PPP Application Deadline to August 8

A COVID-19 Update from Questco – July 2, 2020

In an unexpected development on July 1, 2020, the US House passed a Senate bill that extends the Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) application deadline from June 30, 2020, to August 8, 2020. The President is expected to sign the bill later today. This will change the deadline information that was shared during our June 26th webinar, but rest assured that to date no other details or aspects of the PPP have changed.

For any clients who have not already applied for a PPP loan and are interested in doing so, Questco is available to assist in collecting the required payroll information needed to complete the application. As always, we will continue to keep you informed of any changes to the loan program. Please reach out to your Questco service providers for ongoing support and guidance surrounding the management of your PPP loan.

Have a safe and healthy holiday weekend.
