

AMO BUDGET GUIDE

The below are estimates and actual cost will vary.

We understand how important a U.S. clinical experience is to your medical education. Planning early allows you to budget appropriately. We want to make an AMO clinical experiences obtainable no matter the cost.

The time is now to book your experience before you lose the chance to participate in a hands-on rotation.

WHY IS AMO GOOD FOR YOU AS A CLINICAL-YEAR OR FINAL-YEAR STUDENT?

As opposed to graduates, medical students can still participate in hands-on rotations, giving you real-world experience in non-invasive patient interactions. This is the ONLY time you can get this type of experience with us. Time is limited.

To apply for residency, you need to earn letters of recommendation. Many residency programs will want to see hands-on experiences and interaction with patients. Our rotations will help you obtain the LORs you need to succeed in the American healthcare system. The relationship you build with the physician you work with can help you get an impressive LOR and also obtain a mentor who can help you throughout your medical career.

Direct exposure will also help you as you prepare for your USMLE exams. Immersing yourself in a U.S. clinical experience can put you ahead in your studies.

Per four weeks/month:

AMO Clinical Experience $2,000-$2,500 USD; affordable experiences between $1,000-$1,500 USD

Round Trip Flight

$650-$1,500 USD

B1 Visa

$150-$200 USD

Traveler's Health Insurance

$35-$75 USD

Professional Liability Insurance (for hands-on experiences)

$155 USD

Room and Board:

$600-$1,200 USD

Public Transportation (to and from clinical site)

$100-$200 USD

CONTACT US

+1 (312) 821-9020 x 2 advisors@amopportunities.org