Hogan Design & Construction (HDC) Recognized In The 2020 Qualified Remodeler Magazine's List Of Top 100 Satisfaction Leaders

Geneva, IL (August 19, 2020) – With a reputation for service excellence, quality craftsmanship, and an all-time GuildQuality customer recommendation rating of 98.41%, Hogan Design & Construction (HDC) has been named one of the Top 100 Satisfaction Leaders in the Qualified Remodeler Magazine's annual 2020 ranking. Working in conjunction with GuildQuality, a leading customer satisfaction measurement company, Qualified Remodeler Magazine reviews GuildQuality consumer data pertaining to pre-defined top service traits related to the remodeling industry and project type. Customer reviews and scores related to these top service traits become the Qualified Remodeler Magazine's Top 100 Satisfaction Leaders selection criteria.

As the Qualified Remodeler Magazine website states, These 100 remodeling and home improvement firms were selected by Qualified Remodeler editors from top GuildQuality members. They each achieve high levels of customer satisfaction scores, with improvement over time. The top service traits and satisfaction categories include; Professional & Organized, Problem Resolution, Expertise, Value, Employee Professionalism, Communication, Quality Of Workmanship, Punch List, Work Done Right, Respectful, Quality Of Materials, Budget, Safety, Cleanliness, Sales Knowledge.

Celebrating their 20th anniversary, HDC's industry expertise, high-quality end product, and excellent client-tailored service continues to be recognized year-after-year. "Striving to give our customers the best building and remodeling experience possible is our goal," said Brian Hogan, Owner, and Founder of Hogan Design & Construction (HDC). "This kind of recognition is a wonderful reflection of the hard work our team provides each and every day."

Established in 2000, Hogan Design & Construction's has built a reputation based on our integrity, dependability, high-quality work, customer service excellence, and satisfaction. HDC builds spaces that transform lives, developing long-lasting relationships that deliver dreams through their unique and innovative design-build process.
