

Project Summary

The proposed futuristic icon tower design will be situated on the east side of the given area with landscaping, lightings and transparent LED screen with motion graphics to enliven the structure at night time.

In addition, the new identity structure includes a wide variety of functions such as artistic activities, education, and a museum. It will also create an attractive meeting place for recreation and events of different kind and entirely dedicated to the local people and tourists.