

Project Summary

The vision of this design to narrate the magnificent tale of San José to the world.

The design embodies the soul element of San José - the ever evolving Innovative spirit. The artistic inspiration has risen from the frameworks of the Silicon Valley itself uncovering new perspectives with a meaning larger than life and exploration of oneself.

The re-imagination of synaptic pathways that will continuously lead to milestones in the History of Mankind. The design also incorporates analogy of the human brain with both hemispheres placed on two sides on either banks of the river invoking logic and creativity.
