

PROJECT SUMMARY

OVERLOOK HILL

Overlook Hill is a topographical formation set within the urban landscape of Santa Clara Valley. Conceived as a living landmark that vertically extends the Guadalupe River Park, it provides a series of occupiable viewing platforms, community spaces, and public amenities for downtown San Jose. It is an artificial hill that reshapes the horizon to create the defining feature in the skyline. Inviting people to reach its summit, explore its “trails”, and enjoy views on its many its many lookouts, Overlook Hill is conceived as an open scaffolding for urban life.
