

PROJECT SUMMARY

This monument is a tribute to human effort, creativity and audacity that lives in Silicon Valley and in a wide sense in the Humankind.

It is inspired in a Sea Waves representing the technological revolution that started in Silicon Valley.

It is a structure that jump over the Confluence point with 470' span, over 700' long and 200' high

The Wave is made up of 3 elements:

- Humankind at the West represented by San Jose City
- Technology at the East represented by Silicon Valley
- Confluence where the merge the other two and is the wave's head.
