

INSTITUTE FOR SOCIETAL AND TECHNOLOGICAL PROGRESS

This project proposes an exciting and inspiring building to house a research institute dedicated to researching and analyzing the qualitative value of innovation within the tech industry. It is a biophilic space meant for the gathering of the public, academia, and industry to create a vast resource for qualitative and equitable progress. It embraces a fascination with creating a unique space, a unique dialogue, and advancements in the use of mass timber construction.