

Silicon Valley Cultural Center

Project Summary

The Silicon Valley Cultural Center is a four story building with an art exposition area bridge elevates 200' above the finish floor. The bridge connects the east with the west side of the site and serves to connect the site with the artistic plaza of Confluence point throughout a hanging sculpture. The sculpture connects the past, present and the future of Silicon Valley by locating it above the Weavers Gift sculpture.