

We designed this structure to show spirit of people. A multi-layered urban structure reviving playfulness of Silicon Valley. Derived from its peoples never giving spirit and curiosity.

A simple form rooted deep in us, which showcase a sense of wonder. An iconic form giving San Jose a new skyline without disturbing existing park and ecology of surrounding. The structure takes its form inspired by idea of light tower and symbolic importance of serpent statue.

A new icon which can activate the given site providing ways for future development without losing its own identity.
