

The monument's curved, unique shape creates an intrigue and sparks curiosity to the viewer. From every distance and perspective, the monument draws attention and illuminates beauty. Night and day, the monument projects a distinctive message to inspire those in the Bay area. The site welcomes everyone, with a visitor center, picnic areas, community buildings, gardens, and a range of viewing points. Envisioned to be a place to meet, gather, learn, study, tour, view, and influence creativity, this place will be one of a kind, and a place that draws people from all over the world.
