

We are proposing a 200' x 15' occupiable analog telescope (based on Galileo's design) that will work in tandem as a sundial by casting its shadow throughout the park day after day in conjunction with pre-set markers. The form itself is an extrapolation of the trunk of a palm tree and is just as much at home in our current era as in that of pre-history or our own very distant future.