

Metamorphosis - (The Dragonfly) is truly a world class landmark for San Jose

This unique and beautiful sculpture is meant to be part of the very fabric of the community. Celebrating its richly diverse cultural heritage of the past, present and future being able to be enjoyed and inspire everyone who interacts with it. It rides high sweeping across the city and landmark for all to see. Its dynamic and innovative reflecting the city it lives in.

Celebrating change, it is a strong reminder that we all change grow and transform together.

Just like San Jose it's not static and the head of the sculpture rotates by human interaction giving people the chance to map and see the city in a way never seen before.

Metamorphosis - (The Dragonfly) will also have many chances to be lit at night in fascinating ways and can be used for so many applications from local schools to international artists. The only limit is your imagination!

The amazing installations also will bring people together to enjoy Arena Green act as a wayfinding tool and realise the potential of Arena Green.
