

Downtown Henge

The downtown henge is a circular weave of gateways, shades and seats that welcome people from all over the world, nourish the diverse community and evoke discussions respectively. The metal structures form a circular pattern resembling the henges indicating the growth of silicon valley from the confluence point.