BridgePoint

Embedding with existing local programs and service the city in layers of functionality, which are mixable as well as splittable to meet different needs for the neighborhood and as a landmark.

Bring special viewports based on local topography features that allows people to experience different views in pleasure, during different time of period of a day for both locals and tourists.