

We want to pay omage to the brilliant minds of yesterday while lending itself as a source for insipration and a place of gathering for the innovators of tomorrow.

We want aspiring problem solvers to come here as tourist and find themselves at home surrounded by people who are shaping our future.

We want people to flock here from across the globe to see one of the largest net-zero energy structures and for its beauty and sustainability to inspire architects and dreamers everywhere.