

The Statue of Innovation, Golden Tower of Tomorrow from Silicon Valley

The Statue of Liberty was a gift from France to the United States and tribute to the beacon of freedom USA represented. The Statue of Innovation comprised of 1,033,673 million pyramid shaped hearts, represents the collective innovative spirit of the people of San Jose and the Silicon Valley, mark the history of this place where an industry changed the life of the planet, as permanent landmark and cultural icon of human spirit.

Entire structure is made of sustainable copper, the net zero approach reflect your leadership for sustainability.