

Galaxy is an experiential artwork that aims to create a sense of place and universal belonging. Measuring at approximately 300 ft long and 100 ft high, Galaxy is a colossal sculpture situated within the booming San Jose landscape. The sculpture utilizes Dichroic Glass and stainless steel, enabling the artwork to shine and shimmer both during the day and at night. The material gives an iridescent effect, simulating a glimmering, starry night sky.