

Project Summary (79 words)

The symbol “Alpha” means beginning and the Silicon Valley represents the origin of a new era: the digital era.

With an environment respectful approach, the futuristic - but allegorical - design of this timeless building aims to describe the attitude and the ascent of the Valley where people with a vision live.

On the top of this iconic structure stands the Silicon Valley lighthouse, an inspiring landmark for the whole world of innovation, visible and clearly recognizable from afar.
