

River Street Confluence combines a dynamic set of attractions with place-making that anchors a world-class icon within the heart of San Jose. It symbolizes, affirms and heightens the city's prominence as a global center for innovation and culture rooted in rich diversity and a history of creativity and invention.

The project shines as a worldwide destination while it brings magic into the lives of individuals and families –s a place to dine, play, entertain and engage with history and culture. Walkways, plazas and green spaces mingle with cultural and historic features and spectacular effects to breathe life into the city.