

Infinite Reflection is a confluence of sculptural expression and connection reflected through the celebration of touch, closeness and the human form.