

“Nature and Time” is the project short form for “Mother Nature and Father time” two gigantic statues taller than the colossus of Rhodes and even taller than the Liberty statue in New York, are building a bridge over the river, with a viewing platform in the middle represented as the Pandora’s box. The 2 heads of the statues are accommodating 2 restaurants and at the bottom of each statue is a public museum dedicated to the nature and history of San Jose.