

The bow of the boughs is a celebration of the organic network of inter-connections that epitomizes Silicon Valley and San Jose.

The tapered members symbolizing growth reach upwards and beyond even while bending under the restriction (60') of their own mass.

Flowers of lights sparkle and twinkle (sometimes blaze) as they evoke the energy and life-force that gave birth to the internet, the technology and Silicon Valley's aspirational sense of being.

An amble-way, café and look-out float suspended high above the city and parklands allowing for peaceful mindful enjoyment of the surrounding environment – spiritually, physically and cathartically.
