

SOLARTRONICUS

Art, Science and Technology intersection reaffirming San Jose and Silicon Valley's embracement of SUN as the greatest and most precise technological sundial to date tracking solar movement; a salute, reverence, indeed homage to our finest fountain of energy and most ancient guide.

Three arches represent summer solstice, equinoxes & winter solstice emblemizing interaction between SOFTWARE + HUMANWARE + HARDWARE linked by Analemmas as infinity symbol suggesting Silicon Valley's DNA. It's a sculpture ceremonial space to celebrate annual festivals on those events among other with technological expos & events, a place where time conquers all processes throughout life in motion.