During the creation of this project, our main goal was to reduce the negative impact of the site on human health and the environment through the introduction of resource-saving, energy-efficient technologies, the use of environmentally friendly materials, as well as landscaping the facility. And the main message of this project is the "Dream Catcher" amulet that entangles everything bad in its network and lets everything good pass.