

ProjectSummary

Twin Bears that each stand 100' high will tower above Hwy 87. At night, limned in red (with a little green) they will be visible to passengers landing at SJC. Our native, Anna's Hummingbird will be at their heart. They will remove two high voltage transmission tower eyesores. Ideally, their siting will not infringe on parkland. Red light does not interfere with night vision.