

Parallel universe - overlapping universe - topological universe

Universe is an infinite and bounded topological manifold. Due to the limitation of the technologies for scientific measurement and observation, we can never see the whole picture of the universe or the entangling states of the quantum world. We can start from arbitrary point on the tower, and follow the combinations of infinite many paths to traverse the whole tower, without recognizing the interior or the exterior, the upwards or the downwards - infinite tower.