

First there was the NATURE that gave rise to the Man, who dared to disregard and neglect Mothers care. Though there has always been a mutual sympathy between them ,the Man found a way to overcome its perfection with the TECHNOLOGY. He harnessed its potentials and put Nature into oblivion state. However, what if there is a place where Nature , Man and Technology may converge into union matter?