(d) Jurisdiction over Consumers; Non-Members. The Authority has jurisdiction over Consumers who enter into consensual contractual relationships (e.g., commercial dealings, contracts, leases, or other arrangements) with the Tribe, with any Licensee, or with any Member when such relationship is authorized by this Code. For all matters arising under this Code, the Authority has jurisdiction over any Consumer or Non-Member who threatens the Tribe's political integrity, economic security, or health and welfare or otherwise as delegated by Congress.

8.2 Guidelines. In imposing any administrative remedy or civil penalty provided for in this Code, the Authority shall take into account: the appropriateness of the remedy or penalty with respect to the size of the financial resources and good faith of the Licensee charged; the extent to which the violation was intentional; the gravity of the violation; the history or previous violations; and, such other matters as justice may require.

8.3 Purpose of Civil Penalties. The civil fines imposed under this Code are intended to be remedial and not punitive and are designed to be imposed as follows:

- (c) to coerce all people into complying with this Code and Authority regulations and,
- (d) to compensate any wronged party.

Any Licensee who is found to have committed a violation of this Code may be required to pay a civil fine to the Authority not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) for each violation, but not to exceed one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) in the aggregate. A violation or series of violations related to the same act or omission may be treated as one violation. For knowing or willful violations, each day during which any such violation or failure to comply continues may be treated as a separate violation of this Code and without any maximum limit to any fine.

SECTION 9. RESOLVING BORROWER DISPUTES

9.1 General Principles. The Tribe values its Consumers and expects that Licensees will at all times promptly and dutifully respond to all Consumer questions, concerns, issues, and complaints in a fair and orderly manner. The Tribe intends that in all instances of uncertainty, this Code is to be construed to the benefit of the Consumer. However, within the limits of Section 8.1, nothing in this Section constitutes or shall be construed as a waiver of tribal sovereign immunity or other immunity by any Person qualified to make such assertion.

9.2 Informal Dispute Resolution Procedure. Consumers who are aggrieved by an action or inaction of a Licensee, or have a reasonable basis to support the existence of an issue as to whether or not a Licensee has committed an act or practice that is unfair or deceptive, in violation of existing tribal consumer finance laws or regulations, or not in compliance with a loan agreement, may raise the complaint with the Financial Services Licensee in writing pursuant to the terms of the consumer's loan agreement.

The Financial Services Licensee may not appeal the Authority's decision to fine or otherwise penalize a Licensee's failure to respond within the timeframes in this subsection.

(d) The Financial Services Licensee must retain all records of all consumer complaints in accordance with a record retention schedule that complies with this Code and any applicable federal laws. Electronic storage of consumer complaint records is acceptable.

(a) Consumers who are dissatisfied with a Financial Services Licensee's determination and proposed resolution may request that the Authority conduct an administrative review of the Financial Services Licensee's determination.

(b) A Consumer may request an Authority review by submitting a written request to the Authority within ninety (90) days of the Financial Services Licensee's determination. The Consumer's written request must include the following information:

The Authority may also request additional documentation or information from the consumer or Licensee, conduct interviews as needed, require sworn statements, or take other action necessary or advisable to make its determination. A failure to respond to a request by the Authority may result in a default pursuant to Section 9.3(j).

(d) Request for Hearing. Either before or after the Authority makes its own inquiries, the Authority may grant a written request for an administrative review hearing to resolve a consumer's complaint. The administrative review hearing will occur within sixty (60) days after the Authority receives the consumer's written request. The Authority will send notice to the consumer and Licensee when a request for a hearing is granted or denied.

(e) Pre-hearing Procedure. When an administrative review hearing is granted, the Authority may schedule a prehearing conference with the interested parties to discuss such matters as motions, discovery, witnesses, exhibits, and any other procedural matters the Authority deems necessary or advisable. Following a prehearing conference, the Authority will issue a case management order. If the parties agree a prehearing conference is unnecessary, the parties may file a signed stipulated proposed case management order before the scheduled date of a prehearing conference.

(f) Hearing Procedure.

- (1) Every contested case hearing will be before the Authority. The Authority may designate one agent as the Presiding Officer, who will conduct the hearing, administer oaths, admit or refuse evidence, and control any other aspect of the hearing he deems necessary.

- (6) Hearings will be recorded by the Authority. The recording and all physical evidence will constitute the record. The Authority is responsible to preserve all hearing records for six (6) years after the Authority's decision is issued.

(g) Decision and Order; Notice of Right to Appeal; Service. Within a reasonable time after a hearing, the Authority will issue a written decision and order that will include its factual findings and conclusions of law. Factual findings may be based on the Authority's investigation as well as the testimony and evidence presented by the parties. The decision and order must inform the consumer of the opportunity to appeal the Authority's decision and order pursuant to Section 9.4. The Authority will mail or email a copy of the decision and order to all parties.

(h) Relief. The Authority may grant or deny any relief to the Consumer as the Authority determines appropriate. The Authority may also take enforcement actions under Section 8.
