

Diversity and Disability program at the Migrant Resource Centre North West in St Albans

Presents a Free Support Group Session for ethnic people with a disability once a month

Speak up for yourself and know your rights

These sessions will be for ethnic people with a disability who live in Dandenong, Broadmeadows, Shepparton and Bendigo. This group will talk about the NDIS, human rights, education, relationships, new technologies, transports, employment and more. There will be 11 sessions, including an opportunity to talk outside of the group for those who prefers one on one support.

Date: February to December 2021 and every month
Time: 10.30am to 12.30pm
Where: To be announced

RSVP: Email: christian@mrcnorthwest.org.au
Phone: 9367 6044

Places are limited to 15 people, book early!!

Ethnic people with a disability are encouraged to attend this session which is open to all people with a disability.

Please let us know if you need attendant care support and/or interpreter.
Morning tea and coffee will be provided.