

(At) Home for the Holidays with a little help from Vivvi!

The holiday season is a lot different this year, with many of us celebrating and working from home. Let Vivvi help fill your days, (and your parenting toolbox) with activities for the kids based on the Winter Solstice.

Moments of Joy & Learning for the Little Ones

Start the day off exploring with a Winter Sensory Bin

A Glitter Sensory Bag can lead to many moments of independent play & exploration

There's nothing more magical (and reusable) than an easy-to-make Light Box

Get creative with Snowflake Tape Art, a sensory art experience made for winter

(Pro Tip - add inexpensive Glow Sticks to your shopping card for a delightful surprise when nothing else seems to do the trick)

Activities to delight your Older Learners

For a tried & true activity with a wintery spin, try Starry Night Playdough

Create a Stained Glass Window collage and marvel at the colors and shapes all day long

Create a winterscape for your windows with Coffee Filter Snowflakes

Glitter Pinecones result in a wintery decoration to enjoy all season

The sights and smells of these Orange Pomanders will delight your little learners

Add some smiles to the season with a fun and easy Snowman Face Garland

Cozy Up With A Good Book

We always celebrate the Winter Solstice with a few of our favorite seasonal books. Our recommendations for little readers include Papa, Please Get the Moon for Me, Happy Birthday Moon & The Snowy Day. Our preschool class loves Celebrations of Light, Snow & What do You Celebrate?
