

COURSE SHARING
POWERED BY

Join the ABHE Online Course Sharing Network

The ABHE Online Course Sharing network, powered by Acadeum, allows faith-based institutions to develop new programs and expand general education courses to meet ABHE accreditation requirements.

Through course sharing, your institution can share and access open seats in online courses from mission-aligned colleges and universities. Students receive full credit and grade for the course, and your institution earns revenue by filling seats and strengthening retention.

Course Share with ABHE Partner Institutions

"Acadeum's ABHE group represents colleges we know and value. We believe course sharing is important for a larger movement as Bible Colleges – that we're stronger together. [Acadeum] is an important piece of that puzzle."

-Aaron Proffitt, Vice President for Academic Affairs,
God's Bible School & College

The Acadeum team provides the infrastructure, consortial expertise, and strategic support for you to be successful with course sharing.

Our Partner Success team meets with you one-on-one to recommend the right course sharing strategies to meet your goals.
