AssetMark Receives 2019 Cigna Well-Being Award® for the Northern California Region

Award recognizes workplaces for making a difference in the health and well-being of their employees

CONCORD, CA – September 5, 2019 – AssetMark Financial Holdings, Inc., a leading provider of innovative investment and technology solutions, today announced that the firm is a 2019 Cigna Well-Being Award® recipient for the Northern California region. This award is a distinct honor for workplaces that are cultivating outstanding cultures of well-being in areas such as leadership, organizational foundations, policy and environment, and program implementation and participation.

“We are proud to receive the 2019 Cigna Well-Being Award for the Northern California region,” said Gary Zyla, Chief Financial Officer and Human Resources leader at AssetMark. “We are deeply committed to fostering a positive workplace culture and providing our employees with innovative health and wellness programs. With this recognition, we hope to inspire other companies to do the same.”

AssetMark believes in encouraging its employees to grow and develop in their roles – giving them an exciting and challenging place to come to work every day – while promoting year-round community service initiatives. The company proudly supports its employees by providing a comprehensive benefits package, including tools, resources, and wellness programs to enhance employee well-being.

AssetMark has been continually recognized for its commitment to offering health and wellness programs. Previously, AssetMark won the: 2019 Healthiest Employer in the midsize firm category by the Phoenix Business Journal; 2018 Bay Area Healthiest Employers Awards; Silver level recognition for the American Heart Association Workplace Health Achievement Index in 2018 and 2017; second place among Illinois’ Healthiest Employers in 2017 by Crain’s Custom Media; and, 2017 Cigna Well-Being Award for the Northern California region, among other awards and acknowledgements.
